CADET CORPS REGULATIONS – SECTION 5

(S.R.O. 13/1958)

Citation

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Cadet Corps Regulations.

Headmaster to make application

2. (1) The headmaster of a school desiring to obtain the authority of the Governor for the formation of boys into a school cadet corps must make an application in writing.

(2) Such application will contain information as to the following points—

- (a) the title which the Cadet Corps wishes to adopt;
- (b) whether the Cadet Corps wishes to be affiliated to the Local Forces;
- (c) any point which might bear upon the question of granting authority for the formation of the Cadet Corps.

Authorisation to be published

3. (1) If the Governor is satisfied that an efficient Cadet Corps will be organized at the school he may authorise the formation thereof. Notice of the authorisation shall be published in the Gazette.

(2) Such authorisation may be withdrawn by the Governor at any time.

No power of command over local forces

4. Cadet officers and non-commissioned officers shall have no powers of command over non-commissioned officers and men of the Regular or Local Forces.

Dress

5. The dress of all cadet non-commissioned officers and privates shall be as follows—

Khaki shirts, khaki shorts, khaki hoses, khaki short puttees, black ankle boots, khaki felt hats.

This shall be subject to change as may from time to time be deemed fit.

Upkeep of Uniforms and Instruments

6. A sum of money may be voted annually by the Government for the purchase and upkeep of uniforms and band instruments. Such uniforms and instruments are the property of the Government and must be returned to the Officer Commanding the Corps on cessation of membership.

Training

7. The following syllabus of training will be carried out annually—

(a) all cadets must attend every parade and training period, except when incapacitated through illness, when a Medical Certificate shall be produced.

(b) these parades and training periods will be held once a week in every term and shall consist of—

Squad drill with and without arms,

Section and platoon drill,

Fieldcraft,

Physical Training,

Miniature rifle practice.

(c) there shall be a camp held annually for a period of not more than one week during the Midsummer holidays.

Inspection

8. The Cadet Corps will be inspected twice in each year by an Officer detailed by the Governor. On the result of such inspection it will be decided whether a unit fulfils the conditions necessary for continuation of official recognition.

Responsibility of Commanding Officer

9. The Officer Commanding the Cadet Corps will be responsible to the Governor for—

- (a) the compliance by the Corps with the conditions laid down in these Regulations;
 - (b) keeping a roll showing the strength of the unit, the age of each cadet, and a record of each cadet's attendances at instructional parades.
