Examinations

186. (1) In addition to the powers of routine inspection under sections 5(4) and 22(1) the Registrar may appoint a person as examiner who shall make an examination of the records and the affairs of the co-operative society.

(2) In its request for an examination under this section, the Registrar may set such limits and conditions on the scope and conduct of the examination as the Registrar considers appropriate; and, in carrying out the examination, the powers of the examiner under the provisions of this section shall be limited accordingly.

(3) An examiner requested by the Registrar to carry out an examination under this section may, on production of the examiner's authorisation to any person concerned, at all reasonable times inspect and take copies of, or extracts from, any books or documents relating to a co-operative society, and for any of those purposes may enter any premises at which any such books or documents are kept.

(4) For the purposes of exercising his powers under subsection (3) to take copies or extracts, an examiner may remove from the premises concerned, for such period and on such conditions, if any, as to facilitate access by officers of the co-operative society, as may be reasonably necessary, to any books or documents referred to in that subsection.

(5) An examiner who is carrying out an examination under this section in relation to a co-operative society may, with the approval of the Registrar, and subject to any limits imposed by that approval, carry out a similar examination in relation to any other body, whether a co-operative society or not, which is or has been at any relevant time been associated with the first-mentioned co-operative society, and for that purpose the examiner may exercise, in relation to any such body, any power conferred by subsections (3) and (4).

(6) If an examination is carried out under this section, the examiner shall make a report of the examination to the Registrar.

- (b) requires that any information is to be verified by a statutory declaration, the co-operative society or person on whom the notice is served shall not be regarded as complying with the notice unless he also complies with that requirement.

(10) The Registrar or examiner may take copies of or extracts from any item produced in compliance with a notice under subsection (7) or (8) and if so required by the Registrar or examiner, the person on whom a notice under subsection (7) was served or, in the case of a statement produced in compliance with a notice under subsection (8), a person who is or has been a director, committee member, member, agent or liquidator of the co-operative society shall provide any explanation which may reasonably be required of an item so produced.

(11) If a person on whom a notice is served under subsection (7) does not have in his possession or under his control an item specified in the notice but knows if it is, the person shall not be regarded as complying with the notice unless he states to the best of his knowledge and belief if the item is and, if so required, verifies that information by a statutory declaration.

(12) The production by any person of any item forming part of the books and documents of a co-operative society shall not prejudice any lien which that person claims over that item; but nothing in this section shall compel—

- (a) the production by a solicitor or barrister of any document containing a privileged communication made by or to him in that capacity; or
- (b) the provision of information contained in a privileged communication so made.

(13) A person who contravenes subsection (7) or (8) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term of six months, or to both.

(14) If the Registrar considers it just and so requires by notice in writing, all or any of the expenses incurred by the Registrar in exercising his powers under subsection (7) shall be met, either wholly or to such extent as the Registrar may so require—

- (a) out of the funds of the co-operative society; or
- (b) by the directors or former directors of the co-operative society or any of them, and any sum which a co-operative society or other person is required to pay by a notice under this subsection shall be recoverable summarily by the Registrar as a civil debt.

(4) A notice of an application under subsection (1)(a) as the Registrar may require shall be given to the co-operative society concerned and, if applicable, to any other body whose affairs are to be investigated by virtue of subsection (3).

(6) In the case of an investigation, the expenses may be defrayed in the first instance by the office of the Registrar, but it shall be entitled to be repaid these expenses—

- (c) in any case, by a person convicted of an offence in proceedings instituted as a result of the investigation, to such extent, if any, as the Court by which the person was convicted may order, and a person liable under any of paragraphs (a) to (c) shall be entitled to contributions from any other person liable under the same paragraph according to the amount of their respective liabilities.

(7) If an examination undertaken pursuant to this section reveals substantial irregularities in the business of the co-operative society, the Registrar may choose not to direct any members on whose motion the examination was commenced to defray the expenses.
